

THE NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLING SERIES

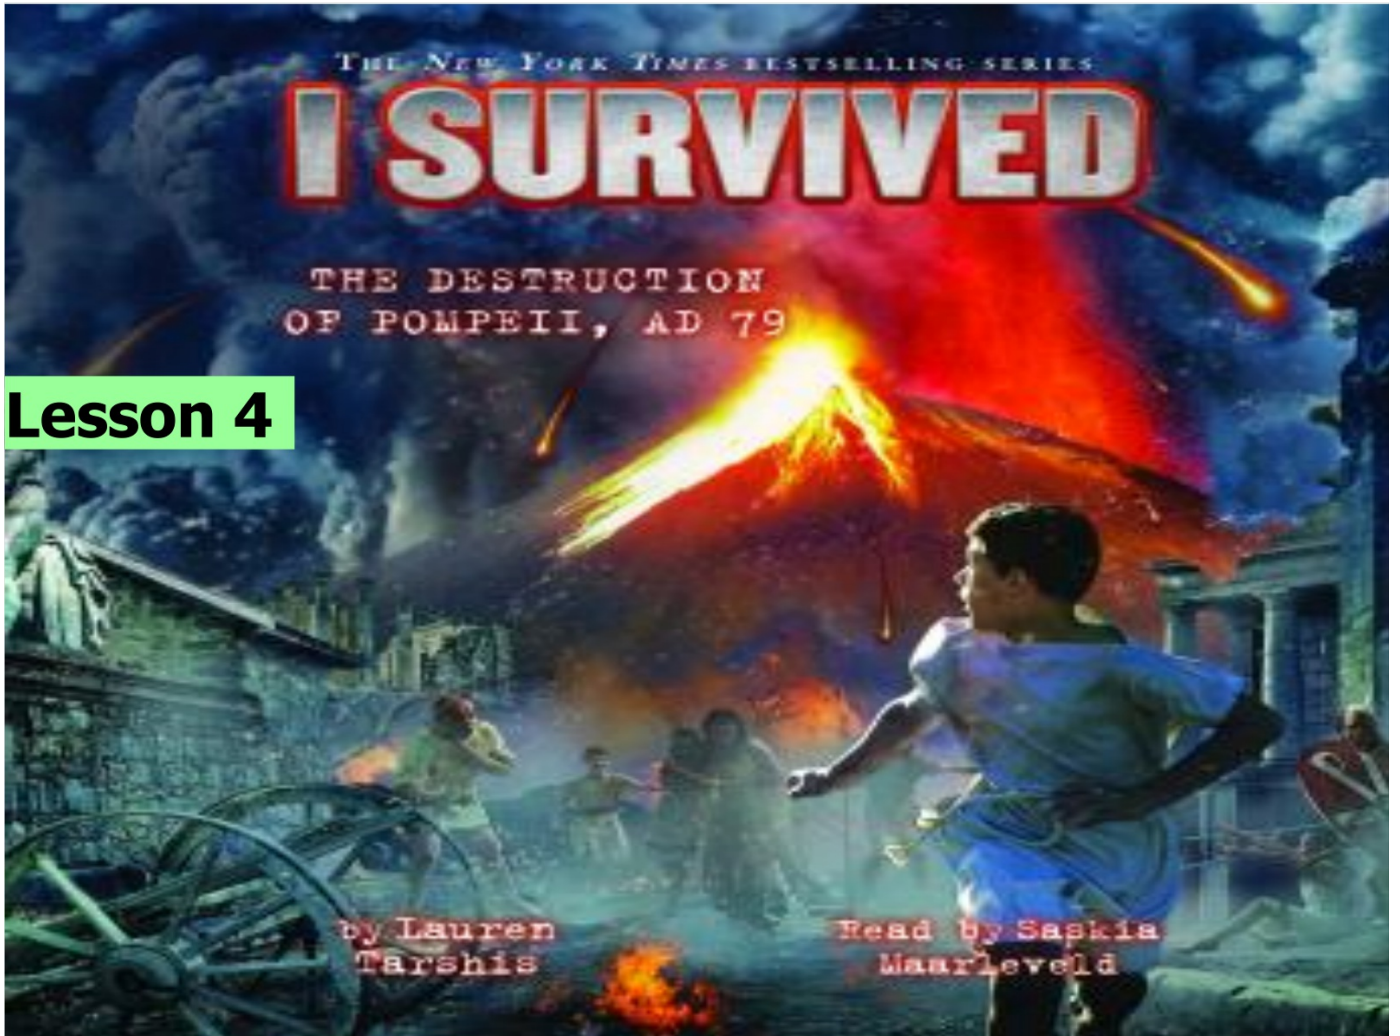

I SURVIVED

THE DESTRUCTION
OF POMPEII, AD 79

Lesson 4

by Lauren
Tarshis

Read by Saskia
Maarleveld

This week Literacy:

Lesson 1 LI: To plan a story and write an opening.

Lesson 2 LI: To write a build up.

Lesson 3 LI: To write a problem.

Lesson 4 LI: To write a resolution and ending.

Lesson 5 LI: To write a historical story (independent writing).

Thursday 21st January 2021

LI: To write a resolution and ending.

SC:

I can use my bullet point plan to write the resolution and end to my story

I can use the possessive apostrophe correctly

I can use speech to show how the characters are feeling

I can add an action after the speech tag

I can use fronted adverbials to move events along

Resolution:

- Marcus goes to the market disguised and is let in
- Throws a snake at the Lanista and releases his father
- Father and son run and head for the mountains

Ending:

- Up in the mountain, father and son can see Vesuvius erupting
- Smoke is getting very thick so they decide to go to the harbour
- They find an abandoned boat and row away. They see Pompeii destroyed.

Author's Corner

Fronted adverbials

Direct speech.

Pronouns

Subordinating conjunctions

Relative clauses

An hour or so later, he walked through the same bustling market place. At first, he didn't notice how people moved aside for him and how slaves bowed their heads at him. And then he understood. Nobody guessed he was a slave. Since he looked important, none of the guards tried to stop him. Out of the corner of his eye, he could see the big guard jabbing Tata in the back with a sharp, pointy spear laughing at his pain. Marcus's blood boiled as he walked towards the lanista....

Later on, father and son found themselves in a deserted old town by an azure blue river. "I'm so glad we escaped from there together father!" Marcus uttered with a relief....

Thursday 21st January 2021

LI: To write a resolution and ending.

Resolution:

- Marcus goes to the market disguised and is let in
- Throws a snake at the Lanista and releases his father
- Father and son run and head for the mountains

Ending:

- Up in the mountain, father and son can see Vesuvius erupting
- Smoke is getting very thick so they decide to go to the harbour
- They find an abandoned boat and row away. They see Pompeii destroyed.

Task

Complete the resolution and ending using speech and fronted adverbials to move events along.

PLENARY

Read through your resolution and ending. Edit in a blue pen. Have you included all the skills from authors corner?

Author's Corner

Fronted adverbials
Direct speech.
Pronouns
Subordinating conjunctions
Relative clauses

Plenary

Self Assessment

SC:

I can use my bullet point plan to write the resolution and end to my story

I can use the possessive apostrophe correctly

I can use speech to show how the characters are feeling

I can add an action after the speech tag

I can use fronted adverbials to move events along

